Duties are glassblowing and assisting giving demonstrations to the public, coldworking and teaching.

2010

Glass Artist - After returning from Singapore I worked in my home studio and volunteered at the world of glass in return for time to make my own work. I sell my work at craft fairs and galleries/shops as well as making commissions. Also worked part time.

Art Glass Solutions Singapore - Internship for one month. Duties were teaching lampworking classes to students, coldworking, building to-scale models. Also taught a one day workshop in lampworking as a visiting artist.

Art Glass Centre Singapore - Helped out at this studio during my 5 month stay in Singapore.

Writer for Singapore Architect Magazine - Freelance

2009

St Helens World of Glass - Placement for one month. Same duties as above.

Set up home studio - After graduating from the Glass centre I set up a small workshop for lampworking at home.

2007-2008

The Craft Shop and Gallery, Royal Exchange Theatre, Manchester. Shop assistant, arranged commissions, website upkeep, and curated exhibitions for the gallery.

The Props Department, Royal Exchange Theatre- Placement for 3 weeks and have worked freelance since.

Other Relevant working history:

- In 2006 I was commissioned to build two wooden tank toys that were historically correct and fully articulated, which were to go into mass production for sale in museums.

Other skills:

- Fully proficient in Adobe Photoshop
- I can speak conversational French as I studied French A Level and took private Lessons when ages 16-18. I now keep up with French by reading books and watching films in French. I am currently reading 'Le Lion' by Joseph Kessel.
